CLINICAL TRAINING

2022-2023 Women's Center Primary Care Mental Health Integration
James A. Haley VA Medical Center, Tampa, FL
Role: Primary Care Clinical Psychologist
Clinical Supervisor: Kelly White, Ph.D.; Katherine Leventhal, PhD
Emphasis: Mental health triage and brief individual cognitive and behavioral psychotherapy with veterans with a wide range of behavioral concerns, mood and anxiety disorders.

2019 Women's Center Primary Care Mental Health Integration
James A. Haley VA Medical Center, Tampa, FL
Role: Clinical Psychology Resident
Clinical Supervisor: Rosario Falero, Ph.D.
Emphasis: Mental health triage and brief individual cognitive and behavioral psychotherapy with veterans with a wide range of behavioral concerns, mood and anxiety disorders.

2015-2016 Edward Hines, Jr. VA Hospital, Chicago, IL
Training Director: Caroline Hawk, Ph.D.

Role: Predoctoral Clinical Psychology Intern, General Track

Rotation: Mental Health Clinic (12 months)

Supervisor: Jonathan Sutton, Ph.D.

Emphasis: Individual cognitive and behavioral psychotherapy with veterans with a wide range of psychopathology: mood and anxiety disorders, adjustment disorders, anger, personality disorders, habit control issues, and psychotic disorders.

Rotation: Home Based Primary Care (6 months)

Supervisors: Anne Day, Ph.D.

Emphasis: Interdisciplinary team consultation, psychological and brief cognitive screening, clinical intake assessments, brief psychoeducation, and brief problem-focused and prevention-oriented psychotherapy for mood and anxiety spectrum disorders and behavioral health.

Rotation: Mental Health Service Line Intake Center (6 months)

Supervisor: Jeffrey Sieracki, Ph.D.

Emphasis: Biopsychosocial assessment of veterans seeking mental health services at Hines VA Hospital. Emergent/urgent evaluation, diagnostic evaluations, treatment, and referral to a specific program or specialty clinic. Assessment of need for hospitalization, including involuntary hospitalization. Emergent/urgent consultations to the emergency room, medical and surgical clinics, and other outpatient clinics.

Rotation: Clinical Training (6 months)

Supervisor: Caroline Hawk, Ph.D.

Emphasis: Administrative rotation focused on program development. Primary focus of this rotation in the context of my training was to revise and enhance the Research Rotation to better fit the development of research psychologists within the VA. Having a well-developed research rotation will better prepare competitive interns to become competitive MIRECC fellows and provide a well-rounded experience to ensure retention of well-prepared research psychologists in the VA system.
